*T*o update any wardrobe, you can always add an accessory. This spring, Navaho, tribal and southwest accessories will play an important role.

- Scarves in bright colors or pastels come in many exciting patterns that represent the latest trend in the fashion industry. A plain solid dress can be transformed with a beautiful scarf with a zig-zag pattern. The Navaho look comes in many forms in addition to scarves. The prints are found in t-shirts, dresses and light weight sweaters.
- Fringes are also another way to spruce up your wardrobe. You can add fringe belts, fringe vests, handbags and fringe sandals to your outfits.
- One other fun way to add a little southwest influence is with feathers and leather. Headbands, bracelets and earrings are fashioned with leather, studs, embroidery and feathers, which makes accessorizing with southwestern-style jewelry practically effortless.
